Why is this a fun place to volunteer?

Wells Fargo is a great host and takes very good care of us. The clients are appreciative and return from year to year. Since the site runs at a steady (but not too busy) pace it is a great place for new volunteers to learn.

Type of clients served: Mostly working families and retirees. Most of our clients have been with Tax-Aid for years, and their extended families use the service as well.

Clients' primary languages:
English

How to get there:

- MUNI Third Street rail drops off at the site location.
- Street parking is readily available around the site; short-term parking (90 minutes) is available in the site parking lot.
