Why is this a fun place to volunteer?

There is a close knit group of volunteers who have been together for many years. This is a great site for a volunteer who really wants to learn more about how a tax site operates.

Type of clients served: Mostly families and individuals.

Clients' primary languages:

Cantonese and English.

How to get there

- Our site is inside James Denman Middle School.
- There is plenty of parking but the site is also within walking distance of Balboa Park BART Station.

Our regular volunteers are:

A dedicated team of tax professionals and students.

What we are looking for:

Cantonese speakers

How many volunteers we need at each session:

16-20
